CATTLE: 46 FORWARD

Prime Cattle-40

Again a neat show forward, with some real corkers in the entry, but buyers at ringside all fighting fit and eager for cattle. Numbers very much wanted and can be handled with ease.

Bulls-2

You would have to go a long way to find better Black and White Bulls to match the quality shown in this ring today. Meated, square British Freisians from JWG Dalby and Sons selling to 181PPK and £1032.

Steers-14

Quality shining through in the entry of Bullocks today, with some real shape and finish present. Topping at 247PPK for a corker of a homebred Limousin from GR Fountaine and Son, with CW Thomas close behind with Blues to 230PPK. Plenty of "R" grades over £2 with the majority of the entry "O" grading types trading around the 190PPK. Top gross to CW Thomas seeing Blues to £1520.

Heifers-24

Not quite the quality forward in the Heifers as seen in previous week, however the entry was, as requested, meat. These sorts at a real premium and just shows that showing the bag is really paying off with the cattle trade as it is. Top PPK today from weekly consigner Simon Darker selling handy weight Limousin x to 228PPK, with Limousins from CW Thomas to 226PPK. All "R" grades today 205-210PPK, with the handy weight "O+" types 195-200PPK. Top gross today from the Fountaine stable, selling Limousin x to £1458, with R&R Knowles selling Charolais x Freisian Heifers to £1306.

Cows-6

Not a single Farm-Assured Cow in the entry today and this unfortunately does limit customers. Farm-Assurance is an increasingly important factor in the section. That said, the Cows on show saw a fair and even trade with plenty of competition at ringside. Top PPK from Southfields Farm with OTM Longhorn Heifers to 153PPK. Top Cows to 121PPK from P Townsend. Top Gross of £900 for Longhorn Cows from Southfields Farm.

Please feel free to contact me for any aspect of cattle marketing on 07972 375351.

SHEEP: 3311 FORWARD

SPRING LAMBS: 2312 FORWARD SQQ 209 P/KG

A good number forward today and quality improved to return an SQQ of 209p/kg only tempered by the very small lambs on display which are harder to sell. Trade though should be reported as a 4.70p/kg dw trade with meat on display albeit a 400 or so lambs that would grade as O4H and unfit for the Export boats. Best end lambs in fast demand and top end Export lambs fought for by Continental buyers. David Wadland top of the tree today seeing 264p/kg at 42.5kg and 41kg to 259p/kg. Woody showed grass fed shape to 256p/kg for 39kg and Norman Deeley real shape to 255p/kg at 44kg. Herricks saw weight to 217p/kg at 46kg equal with Keith Crabtree and Stuart Wise with Texel. All in average today saw the yard return £91. Overall top of £120 from R J Batchelor at 63kg with R F Wilson, Wappenbury seeing 61kg at £115 and E Phipps 62kg to £114. Heavies remaining a harder sell as Catering Butchers struggle with Covid restrictions. Meat and Export types a smart trade throughout.

October Opening Sale of Store Cattle.

Just over 350 Cattle forward for the first of the Catalogues Sales for the Autumn. We like to operate these Catalogue specific Sales to continue to assist buyers with serious orders as opposed to impulse buyers and dealers. Top end and sure bets a flying trade whilst those cold Cattle coming forward harder to sell with buyers unwilling to have passengers for a winter short of straw. Cows and Calves started the day seeing various units competed for with 3 year old Simmental units with baby calves at foot to £1520. Similar goods saw Charolais 3 year olds with young calves £1500 from Messrs Bostock and 2008 Cows of the same breeding with an April Bull calf to £1600. Older breaking units trading £1000 to £1300.

Bucket Calves the harder to sell under current climes but a top of £900 for Tom Goodmans run with Charolais Steers to £900 at 16 months with a trio of others £890. Perhaps the trade of the day to Messrs Church, Harpole with shapely Lim Heifers genuine Stores but with shape seeing £965 for a Pair of 15 months old and others £920 and £900.

CULL EWES: 829 FORWARD

Just under 900 and a trade that was brisk throughout for the quality on offer. Ewes starting to come fat again and buyers wary of trim costs and decrease in sales revenue for fat with the void left by the Kebab trade. Shape easily sold and heavy ewes a stand on trade. No real shaped ewes today but weight saw £122 and £116 for AL & AR Wolfe, Leicester whilst Texels to £114 from Messrs Claridge. Suffolks to £114 from P Dugmore. Most better bred Continentals north of £100. Suffolks to £99 from FJ Tombs & Son with the majority trading £94 plus. Mules steadier on the week selling to £81.50 from Messrs Wolfe with the majority £72 to £80. Small plain Ewes a good trade throughout. Only fat Ewes a hard sell. Our show this year will be very much streamlined, and unfortunately, only consist of livestock classes. Hopefully our popular cake and butchers classes can make a return next year.
