CATTLE: 41 forward

Prime Cattle: 22 forward

A modest yarding containing all sorts and qualities. We are intending to announce changes in the Cattle section shortly and will hope to provide detailed changes to help us expand this area of the business. Cattle today meeting a buoyant trade and the only complaints being from buyers relating to costs in comparison to alternatives.

Steers wanted and meat and finish rewarded with Parry Walters taking 205p/kg for Limousin Steers. Good meat trading mostly in the 190p/kg region but many lean today. Weight though pays and today this emphasised more than most with CD Harrison seeing a 27 month old Steer at 846kg returning £1608. I would like to see the grid that allows for this elsewhere.

Heifers wanted but not the goods on show. Top a weighted Heifer from Richard Fontaine at 198p/kg returning £1291. Others regularly over 190p/kg with Dave Mitchell showing what a feeder he is to see a Bucket reared Angus at 194p/kg to a new Butchers Account. Cattle are wanted but meat is a must, far too many Stores showed through this ring recently.

Just one little smart Bull from Hillside Farm today selling to 210p/kg at 14 months. Many like this wanted weekly and on this trade a wonder we don't have them.

SHEEP: 4,143 forward

Spring Lambs: 3,061 forward SQQ 200.6p/kg

The trade seemingly just too good for farmers to turn down today, with mowing placed on the back burner for the morning whilst they chose to trade some lambs. Correct choice!!! An SQQ of 201p/kg a smashing trade taking account of the number of lambs showing the weather. Trade from start to finish of the 3000 plus lambs in the aisles with vendors travelling from far and wide. In the Euro section a top price of 218p/kg from G Gregory with 40kg Texels whilst J Bacon, Kineton took lightweights at 30kg to 217p/kg and the newly betrothed Willy Moore taking 216p/kg at 38.5kg to numb the pain. North Leicestershire vendors CR Sercombe 40kg at 215p/kg. In the heavies marvellous meat the order of the day and Brian Mawby showed lambs to be proud of to 218p/kg at 48kg. PC & RA Nichols took 208p/kg at 46kg for Suffolks and Pritchard Farms 206p/kg at 46.5kg whilst heavies from BMF Smith 206p/kg for 50.5kg. Weight really wanted today and if anything just too many under 37kg lambs on the market at the moment. In the lump the Euro section topped by WH & R Weston with 45kg to £93, J & BD Tustian £93 for 45.5kg, A Tarry Smith £92.50 for 45kg and Robert and Jenny Nichols £92 for 44.5kg. Overall plenty of lambs today breaking £100. Top BMF Smith £119 for a Suffolk at 67kg whilst Gate Farming showed Cheviot x Suffolk at 63.5kg to £114 whilst 55kg from BMF Smith £111. Trade throughout today albeit calls to pull the lambs back a few pounds. Today a farmers trade so far in front of the deadweight and rewarding weight and finish. Numbers now flooding the market and a recovering pound will need to be monitored.

LORRY WASH

The new Lorry Wash facility was installed to ensure fair usage and to avoid unnecessary time being spent by any individual on the Wash, whilst stopping unauthorised users pushing in front of vendors. As a result we have issued FREE Tokens to use the wash. We started with 150 Tokens and now have only 12 left. This must mean that the Token time is either longer than is needed to wash one trailer or users are hoarding them for another day. Please return these Tokens as soon as possible to avoid the need to commence charging for the use of the Wash in line with Abbatoirs and other Markets. Help us to help you!!
