SHEEP:3318

Spring Lambs: 2186 Forward SQQ 197p/kg

Over 2100 lambs again today with mixed quality. Some very good runs of sheep and also some painfully under done sorts. An Sqq of 197p/kg representing a slight slow on the week albeit perhaps due only to the bottom end quality and again a lot of under finished underweight lambs. Many more than usual for the time of year. In the Euro section a top today of 239p/kg at 40kg from Dave Mitchell ahead of G L Pickering at 218p/kg for 38kg and RHE Levinge, Heathrow 216p/kg at equal money and D Mitchell 216p/kg for 44kg. In the heavies a top of 211p/kg for 47kg from Boulton Bros whilst R Smith & Son 47kg to 207p/kg and PD & DM Hopcraft 48kg to 208p/kg. Meated and finished lambs very rarely under 200p/kg in all weights other than super heavies. In the lump Euro lambs topping at £95.20 for 40kg from D Mitchell with his 44kg to £95. S & J farming 45.5kg to £94.50 and R Heckford 44kg to £94. Overall today plenty of meat lambs over £100. R W Harrison & Sons 51kg to £106, RE Hawes 54kg to £107 and top of the tree MM Clarke & Sons 54kg to £109.

Meat and finish king with buyers still buoyant for lambs. Please make sure lambs are sorted well. We have more buyers in the aisles than most because we sort lambs appropriately. Today a number of vendors insisting on sorting lambs themselves and in all three cases lambs not bid on.

NOTICE TO VENDORS. Commencing Monday the 21st Ram lambs will be sold separately in preparation for the Quarbani festival in the first week of September. Ram lambs will be specifically marketed in the last two weeks of August and vendors are asked to mark ram lambs out in preparation to sorting. Meated Ram lambs will be wanted and vendors are advised to feed rams in anticipation of this date.
