SHEEP:2431 FORWARD PRIME HOGGS:1224 FORWARD SQQ 258p/KG AVG £108.50

Numbers short again but the Torrential rain of Monday morning likely putting a few off. Trade though a flyer with three new Accounts operating today as Export Sales seemingly open up properly for the first time since January. An SQQ of 258p/kg a marked move forward and equal to a 540p/kgdw. Export Hogs the order of the day and a large climb at the best end also. Goats also a flyer with M Peebles selling 42kg at 317p/kg and 38kg at 329p/kg. The key with Goats is to ensure they are not too fat. Export Hogs today topping at 312p/kg for the Staffordshire Leader AT Edwards with 42kg Beltex to 312p/kg with G Woodard at 303p/kg and WH Allan 301p/kg, 300 and 299p/kg. Today plenty of better end Export weight Hogs trading north of 270p/kg with only the lean lesser shaped Hogs trading in and around 250p/kg if Export weight. Heavier 43kg to 45.5kg harder to shift and 20p/kg discount for these weights throughout. Heavy Hogs a harder trade as New Zealands contribution dominates Supermarket Shelves leaving an oversupply of Heavy Hogs for the Catering community. Weighted Hogs topping at 269p/kg at 46.5kg for N Redfern with Hillside Farm equal weights at 258p/kg. V R Phipps always bringing the quality to see 256p/kg at 48kg with E A Hull 47kg to 255p/kg. R H Levinge up from Staines 49kg to 255p/kg. An all in avg of £109 with the majority of Hogs today lightweight Exports a real bonus and a tribute to those brave enough not to panic and sell too early. Export Hogs topping at 42kg for £133 from M Peebles selling to Najibs Ltd, Derby. A T Edwards 42kg to £131 and R Richins, Oxford 44.5kg at £128 and £126. Heavies to £132 for 54kg from V Phipps and £130 for HL Goode & Son at 66kg. Plenty of Heavier Hogs £125 and north.

Heavies sadly a difficult trade as New Zealand Lamb is plentiful at a much and Restaurants have taken Lamb from the Menu. We hope that whilst caterers are over supplied they use the opportunity to Market the wonderful UK produce back into Restaurants and Pubs
