SHEEP: 2807

Prime Lambs 1803 forward SQQ 180p/kg

Some how we still managed to find 1800 lambs despite numbers dropping around the country. Lambs again either thick meat or struggling to be better than Store lambs. Trade though again holding up here to return 180p/kg which represented a slow on the week but still the dearest in the land for the day. Top today to W G Moore at 198p/kg for 44kg with Texel whilst Phil Darby Structures 41.5kg at equal money for Beltex and 43kg at 197p/kg. H S Underwood, Towcester 196p/kg for 45kg. In the heavies, perhaps not quite the demand of the past month but still coming to the money with D W Gurney & Son 192p/kg at 48kg and B C Burton 192p/kg at 46.5kg. Meat very much bid for and those with it finding lots of competition and many lambs today would face 410p/kg both for the finished better dying sorts and the also rans. In the lump Euro lambs topping at £88 for 45kg for H S Underwood whilst W G Moore 44kg at £87 and N Barratt 45kg at £86.50. Overall top gross today just about still hitting three figures with £100 to BMF Smith for 60.5kg with his others £96.50, £96, £93.50 and £92 for lambs all over 50kg whilst PD & DM Hopcraft £92 twice for 50.5 and 51.5kg. Trade harder work for the Auctioneer but buyers out in numbers and appreciating a yard full to have a go at.
