CATTLE: 36 forward

Prime Cattle: 24 forward

Painfully short of numbers despite a good trade for the middle of the road and out of spec. Today a new account to travel cattle north of the border and sadly just not the cattle needed here.

In the Steers mainly heavy cattle selling to 202p/kg for SF & AJ Deeming for Angus with others 198p/kg from Messrs Fountaine. Top gross £1455 to Messrs Deeming with others £1383.

Heifers hard to sell with no butchery interest following slow sales and cheaper alternatives for them to obtain meat. Messrs Fountaine to 205p/kg for Limousin and 200p/kg to R Smith seeing a top od £1271.

Prime Lambs: 2192 forward SQQ 174p/kg

A huge yarding for this area at this time of year with just under 2200 penned. Lambs one of two ways, either good meat and fed or bad dying overly lean sorts. Trade expected to be drastically lower in line with the trading of last week but none the less an SQQ of 174p/kg still posted. Having genuine buyers with genuine jobs is the key. A good return throughout today with the most drastic drop in trade seen in the heavies with supply outweighing demand nationally. Lambs dealt and weighed professionally here as we continue to provide a trustworthy service to our growing number of customers. In the Euro lambs today meated sorts just as hot as last week with T E Payne & Son selling to 200p/kg for 41.5kg Beltex ahead of his 42.5kg at 188p/kg and G R Fountaine at equal money for 40.5kg. In the heavies a top of 188p/kg for 46.5kg Beltex from B C Burton with 47.5kg at 187p/kg. In the lump a top of £83 for T E Payne & Son whilst £82 for W Rogers and PD & DM Hopcraft both at 45kg. Overall today the best heavies just as dear with BMF Smith taking £115.50 for 71kg. Others at 60kg £101 and £100 and 56kg at £98. Meat and finish definitely paying. Lambs starting to be drawn lean again and buyers very adamant that finish should be present. We are consistently producing returns ahead of the deadweight if you use actual killing out percentages achieved, lean lambs though will die at least 1% less and this will be taken account for by the buyers at penside. Today more than ever highlighted the premium to be had by fully meated lambs.

Cull Ewes : 676 forward

An increased number forward and a continued eeking upwards of trade today. No real strong Ewes of any note and these most wanted, Top today a Charollais Tup from M R Grindal at £100.
