CATTLE: 227 FORWARD

On Monday 27th June Rugby Farmers held their weekly Primestock Sale.

A proper day with numbers and trade across all sections.

30 Bullocks forward to £2162.70 or 291ppk.

27 Heifers forward to £1938.06 or 294ppk.

9 Prime Bulls forward to £2125.10 or 271ppk.

33 OTM & Cast Cows to £1958.88 or 240ppk.

Prime Cattle - trade showing no signs in sticking. Hopefully the general public in the tightening of the belt will cut out the cheap takeaway meals that cost a fortune and continue with the Best Quality British Beef.

Prime Steers - 30 forward. Possibly not the style and grading capacity as last week but their was some fantastic meat forward. No cattle were under finished. Comparison made by vendors today suggesting £150 a head better off on their feet at Rugby. They don't need to be the best, as we've mentioned as long as the back is on the cattle.

27 Heifers more heifers forward this week which was pleasing to see. Another fantastic trade with buyers making the most of a quality run of cattle. A very heavy show of Angus Sired cattle were forward. Which was good to see, to enable another order to be fulfilled.

Prime Bulls 9 forward . Vernon Bailey topped the day with some big homebred lads. Coming to £2125. All classes of bulls were keenly bid for. Common handy weight bulls will be required next week for the upcoming festival. They do not have to be very pretty!!

33 Cows forward another cracking trade with cows I think dearer again on the week. Again like the clean, getting the meat on their backs is definitely the key. Some battle ships of big heavy R grade cows from JS Arthers coming to over £1900.

SHEEP: 4584 FORWARD PRIME LAMBS: 2494 FORWARD SQQ 309P/KG AVG £131

A shift in trade but a increase in numbers towards 2500 Lambs today putting us in the top few yarding's for the day. Trade steadying nationally but a super yard of quality much more akin to the quality expected from our super local farmers resulted in an SQQ of 309p/kg placing trade in the top two for the days trading. Best end lambs well chased but the slow of Export demand meaning the premium for the same slightly eroded on the week. Top today 353p/kg for DG Coombes selling Charolais x at 38kg with PD & C Davenport 40kg to 350p/kg and MM Clarke & Sons best run of the year flying away at 340p/kg for 43kg. Fordwell Farm Partners making the journey to take 42kg at 340p/kg ahead of P Jarrom 41kg to 339p/kg. Weight kicking usual pre conceptions and actually trading faster than Export weights with Wedding Season more buoyant than Export demand. MM Clarke & Sons sold 47kg to 331p/kg with Fordwell Farm Partners 50kg at 328p/kg and RP Teverson 46.5kg at 327p/kg. An all in avg of £135 for a falling trade and with lambs in the avg of 30 to 35kg regularly a real illustration of the strength of the trade. Export weights to £146 at 43kg from MM Clarke & Sons with D G Coombes 43kg to £145.50 also selling 44kg to £144 and MG & SM Grindal 45kg at £144 and SM & JM Lambert 45kg to £144. Heavies a flyer with real demand seeing a top for the day from marvellous Martin Morris at £172 for 57kg with FJ Tombs & Son £170.50 for 57kg and £169.50 for 56 and 58kg. Morris 58kg £169.50. Today 195 Lambs making £150 plus. Lambs a harder sell throughout with Lambs not eligible for this years Quarbani festival and Export trade steadied by a strengthening of the pound. Competition reigns supreme though and trade ahead of any local compare.
