PRIME LAMBS: 1892 FORWARD

SQQ 337P/KG AVG £135

A wonderful Avg of £135 for the yarding of 1900 despite the number of Light City Lambs forward today. In truth light Lambs starting to be harder to sell as they become over subscribed Nationally. Trade harder on the week but at 336p/kg SQQ miles ahead of Deadweight comparison especially when considering how wet todays yarding had been. Export a steadying trade as the day wore on but weighted Lambs dear throughout. Best end Lambs well chased though selling to 421p/kg at 38kg from Pritchard Farms with Texels full of meat and shape. Leam Farms boasted wonderful meat finished completely off the grass and mothers milk selling Beltex at 38kg to 389p/kg with Pritchard Farms 379p/kg. P Cobley 40kg to 373p/kg. Heavies well supported and chased throughout with a top of 355p/kg for 49kg from Pritchard Farms and 350p/kg at 46kg from John Peebles whilst the best draw to date from MM Clarke & Sons saw 52kg at 348p/kg. The totals Column always the most important data especially under current circumstances. Export weights today taking £162 at 44kg from HM & JM Titterton with 44kg to £161 from MM Clarke & Sons and £160 at 38kg from Messrs Pritchard Farms. Weight really paying and overall Champion today at £185 for 57kg from Phil and Steph Baker whilst Messrs Emery 54kg to £182 and MM Clarke & Sons £181. JT Mold 49kg at £174 and Roger Coombes run of 230 topping at £172 for 51kg. Lamb trade now awaiting a further spark on the Continent and vendors now encouraged to draw heavier lambs 40kg plus and only if fully finished, lightweight and lean lambs that have held a massive City trade until recently now harder to sell.
